

Closing Ceremony for the Academic Year 2010 - 2011

On the morning of 18th July, 2011, DTU held a closing ceremony for the academic year 2010-2011. Attendees included Mr. Nguyen Le Quoc Linh, Deputy Chairman of the Danang Labor Union, Mr. Le Cong Co, DTU Chairman & Rector and the entire staff.

Dr. Vo Thanh Hai, DTU Vice Rector, reported that year 2010-2011 was one of the most successful ever for DTU. Over 86% of DTU graduates found a job within 6 months of graduation. The quality of teaching, studying and scientific research also improved considerably, with some remarkable accomplishments.

Then Dr. Le Nguyen Bao introduced his three main objectives for the upcoming academic year: “Quality of Life, Quality of Education and Continuing Progress”. He said: “Our first target is to improve the living standards of lecturers and staff, which will increase their motivation to dedicate themselves more and more to making a better DTU in the future. DTU is also campaigning to train DTU staff in Humanities, increase the publication of internationally-recognized research papers, and inviting foreign lecturers to assist in upgrading our teaching methods”.

Mr. Nguyen Le Quoc Linh represented the Danang Labor Union to award a certificate of merit to Mr. Le Cong Co for his dedication to education over the years. The DTU Management Board also gave awards worth 500 million VND to certain staff for their accomplishments during the academic year.
