

DTU adds new policies for student tuition aid

Private universities have become a choice for students wishing to continue their studies. In addition to concerns about teaching quality and job opportunities, tuition fees are also a matter for students to consider.

Dr. Curtis E. Porter presents certificates of accomplishment to DTU students enrolled in the PSU program

In the academic year 2012-2013, despite the trend of increasing tuition fees in many universities, the DTU Board of Rectors has managed to maintain a balance. Figures such as 23m VND per semester, or 46m a year at FPT University, 3m a month or 38m a year at Hoa Sen University and 7m a month, or 74m a year at the University of Economics and Finance in Ho Chi Minh City will be a big concern for students and parents. On the other hand, it will only cost 6m per semester, at 375.000 VND per credit for students enrolling at Duy Tan University. Moreover, scholarships worth up to 15% - 50% of the annual tuition are available for students during their four years of study at DTU.
