

DTU Honored to Appoint a New Associate Professor and Ph.Ds

On 22nd January, 2011, DTU held a meeting to honor a new Associate Professor and two new Ph.Ds as DTU permanent staff and lecturers. Attending the meeting were Mr. Le Cong, DTU Co-Chairman, members of the Management Board and DTU postgraduates.

Dr. Ho Van Nhan speaks at the meeting

Mr. Nguyen Duc Thanh, Head of the Party Union said: “We are very proud to name Mr. Le Duc Toan, DTU lecturer, as an Associate Professor. In addition, Mr. Ho Van Nhan, a DTU alumnus becomes a PhD and Mr. Le Nguyen Bao becomes the first DTU member to graduate with a PhD from an American institution”.

On behalf of the entire staff, Mr. Le Cong Co gave flowers and gifts to congratulate the new staff. He said: “It gave us all so much pleasure to have one of our own lecturers become an Associate Professor and for one of our alumni to be awarded a Doctorate. This shows that the abilities of DTU graduates match those at public universities. I hope that you will support your colleagues in their future studies. DTU will support any of its staff who want to broaden their learning in Vietnam or overseas”.

At present, there are 495 lecturers teaching at DTU. 4.2% of these are Professors or Associate Professors, 7.3% are Ph.Ds, 54.4% are Masters and the rest are studying for postgraduate degrees. They are essential to the teaching and the development at DTU.

(Board of Website Editors)