DTU Is The First Private University Accredited For National Education Quality

On February 20th, DTU become the first private university in Vietnam to receive a Certificate of National Education Quality, granted by the Center for Education Accreditation. In October 2016, DTU applied for accreditation from the Ministry of Education and Training and the Association of Vietnamese Universities and Colleges. The DTU self-evaluation was approved, with 52 out of the 61 criteria meeting the MOET requirements, for a total score of 85.25%. The result was approved by ballot and the official Certificate of Accreditation was issued.

DTU is accredited for its national quality of education

Ms. Nguyen Phuong Nga, Director of Center for Education Accreditation, said: "DTU is one of four universities to be recognized by the Center for Education Accreditation and the only private university".

DTU is also the first private university in Vietnam to offer doctoral programs in Computer Science and Business Administration.

(Media Center)