

DTU Overwhelms the Opposition in the Opening match of the 2016 Vietnamese University Games

The 2016 Vietnam University Games (VUG) kicked off on April 9th at the Zone 5 Military Stadium, with several matches, including one between DTU and Phuong Dong College.

The match between DTU (in red) and Phuong Dong College

DTU and Phuong Dong College played confidently and the score was 1-1 at the end of the first haft.

Spectators and teams

In the second half, DTU continued to play well and defeated Phuong Dong College 5-1.

2016 VUG, including Futsal, a Dance Battle and a University Campus Tour will take place from March to May 2016. In Danang, eight teams from universities and colleges will participate in Futsal, with seventeen matches and ninety-six players. Bigger and better this year, the event promises to be an exciting tournament for Danang students and others throughout Vietnam.

(Media Center)