

DTU Students Try Their Best in the “Vietnamese Talent and Beauty” Contest

The Vietnamese Talent and Beauty Contest of Central Vietnam took place at Polytechnic University of Danang on October 27th. Participating in the competition with many teams from other Danang universities and colleges, DTU students really exerted themselves to the utmost. The exciting environment brought students together to excel in their Flashmob dances.

There were 15 teams from 12 Danang universities and colleges participating. This competition was held in support of the “2013 Vietnamese Women Students Beauty Contest”, which will take place from September 4th to November 17th. In this contest, teams are invited to dance Flashmob to the melody of the song “Everyone Has Their Own Dream” by singer Van Mai Huong.

The DTU2 team wins second prize in the Vietnamese Talent and Beauty Contest

Two DTU’s teams, consisting of DTU1 from the International School and DTU2 from the Skills Club brought the audience impressive Flashmod dances. The DTU2 team surpassed several other excellent teams to win second prize.

DTUI Team's Flashmob dance

This is a justifiable result after the DTU students' hard practice, creativity and spirit of unity. Le Thi Ngoc, a student of International School said: "Our main advantage was that our team had cleverly practiced our dancing, so we were very confident. However, we were well aware of the high quality of the large number of other unique teams competing. We are very happy and proud of our achievement and will try to do even better in the future."

The Vietnamese Talent and Beauty Contest is really an important event for Danang students to exchange ideas, study, show off their talents and develop other skills thoroughly.
