

DTU Wins First Prize in the 2U! Competition

By winning the first prize of 15 million VND, DTU qualified to publish two articles on VnExpress.net and Ione.net. Second and third prizes went to Vinh University and Phu Yen University respectively.

The four students with the best scores in this competition will receive their prizes by mail.

DTU's representative said: "It was a big surprise for us to win the most votes in this competition. The result was also a result of the efforts of DTU Students' Association".

A representative from Vinh University said: "This competition helped many students feel prouder of their universities and strengthened their solidarity with each other".

During the three months, the 2U! Competition drew participants from more than 100 universities and colleges, who supplied numerous articles, photos and video clips about their institutions. It was also a good opportunity for students around the country to make new friends and exchange ideas.

According to Mr. Ta Van Khoi, the representative of the Ho Chi Minh City Students' Association, thanks to this competition, several extracurricular activities have received increased support from sponsoring organizations.

The 2U! Competition was held under the collaboration of VnExpress and the Vietnamese Students' Association and was sponsored by The Gioi Di Dong Company.
