Twelve universities and colleges took part in the four sections. DTU impressed the audience with their presentation of the 17 years of development of DTU and some of DTU’s remarkable achievements. The fashion contest was an opportunity for DTU to show the audience more about DTU’s culture and their university uniforms.

“Although we had a very short time to prepare for the contest, we were able to portray more about our DTU culture and meet with lecturers from other institutions”, said Ms. Truong Thi Hue, Vice-Chairwoman of the DTU Labor Union. DTU won Third prize. First Prize went to the College of Trade, with the College of Transportation College and Danang University of Sports tying for Second place.
