

Duy Tan University Meets National Education Quality Standards

On February, Duy Tan University (DTU) was recognised meeting the national education quality standards set by the Center for Education Accreditation, the Association of Vietnamese Universities and Colleges.

It is the first private university in Vietnam to meet the requirements of the national standards of accreditation and to be awarded the Accreditation Certificate.

The Certificate of Accreditation is given to DTU

DTU is among the 30 universities that have been assessed for education quality accreditation to date. The DTU self-evaluation was approved, with 52 out of the 61 criteria meeting the MOET requirements, for a total score of 85.25%. The result was approved by the External Assessment Team with 100% of its members and the official Certificate of Accreditation was issued.

(Media Center)

