

Get a DTU Master's Degree in Partnership with the Academy of Finance in Hanoi

As well as enhancing the partnerships with top universities worldwide, DTU is cooperating with prestigious Vietnamese universities to improve and expand training programs. With the approval of MOET, DTU is partnering with the Academy of Finance in Hanoi to offer a master's program in Danang.

From July 2010, DTU will admit 80 students into two new programs, majoring in Economics and Finance and Banking. The students will study under the supervision of the Academy of Finance, outside regular working hours and at weekends. After studying at DTU in Danang, graduates will be awarded a master's degree from Vietnam's leading financial institution.

Currently, DTU offers master's Degrees in two special programs of Computer Science and Business Administration in cooperation with Carnegie Mellon University and Penn State University respectively, with almost 200 students attending both programs. As a result, DTU will now offer four master's programs.

(Media Center)