

Graduation Ceremony for B20 Second Degree Students

On January 7th, DTU held a graduation ceremony for B20 second degree students, attended by the DTU Board of Provost, Deans of faculties, DTU Center Directors, 81 graduates and their parents.

Mr. Ho Ha Dong, Vice-Director of the Center of the e-Learning and Second Degree Center

Mr. Ho Ha Dong, Vice-Director of the Center of the e-Learning and Second Degree Center, reported that, since the Ministry of Education and Training first authorized second degree programs at DTU in 2003, the university has offered 12 new courses with nearly 5,000 enrollees and graduated 2,500 highly-qualified graduates from 10 Second Degree courses.

New graduates receive diplomas and gifts

There were 81 graduates this January, including 7 from the B19 course and 2 from B18. Among the 81 graduates, there were 16 students rated excellent, 26 very good, 36 good and 3 moderate. Four valedictorians from Business Accounting, Audit Accounting, Business Administration, and Tourism and Travel Management received certificates of merit and gifts from the Board of Provosts.

Le Ngoc Diep of B20QTH said: “The certificates result from our hard work and the strong support of our dedicated DTU lecturers, our families and colleagues. After two years of study, we are equipped with latest learning and professional skills which are vital in our future careers. We will use this knowledge to improve the quality of our work and get the best out of our jobs and lives.”
