Mr. Vijo said: “I/T has now become an essential tool in most countries. We aim to graduate a highly-qualified I/T workforce. Professionalism, prudence and good English are the keys which will ensure the success of NIIT graduates in their future careers”.

NIIT was first established in India in 1981. It is now ranked in the top 20 of I/T institutions worldwide. In 2005, NIIT partnered with DTU to offer courses and has enrolled about 450 students so far. After two years of study, students can work for national or foreign companies and enterprises. In addition, they can study for a Bachelors Degree by transferring to the CMU advanced program at DTU.
