At the event, Labor Hero and Distinguished Teacher Le Cong Co, DTU Chairman, said: “On this special day, we all remember our beloved Uncle Ho, who founded the Democratic Republic of Vietnam and the Communist Party. He dedicated his life to the nation and the people. Therefore, the generation of students born and raised in peace must strive to fulfill Uncle Ho's wishes: 'As long as there are mountains, rivers, and people, we will build a better future after defeating the Americans!' DTU, with this aspiration, hopes that students will be able to serve society and the country after graduating.”

The “May Melodies” program brought heroic tunes through the performances of DTU students and artists from the Hue Singing Club, featuring deeply emotional performances such as: the ensemble piece “Luu Thuy Kim Tien Xuan Phong Long Ho”; the reconstructed ancient piece “Autumn Afternoon Memory”; the folk song “Water and Mountains Thousands of Miles”; and the piece “Boating at Moonrise” (Lyrics by Princess Mai Am - Kim Quy - Thuy Hong).

Each performance was meticulously prepared, carrying its own significance to express gratitude to beloved Uncle Ho, as well as love for the homeland and the legendary path of Ho Chi Minh's history.

On this occasion, DTU's Youth Union also awarded individuals who received the "Advanced Youth Following Uncle Ho's Teachings" award for 2024.
