

MOET Holds a Conference at the DTU Campus

A conference on “Disciplinary Action for Administrative Violations in Education” was held by MOET at DTU on the 12th and 13th of December. Representatives from sixty-three Inspection Offices from around the country attended the conference.

Inspectors at the conference

On the first day of the conference, a lawyer named Nguyen Phuc Thanh reported on “General Issues in Sanctioning Administrative Violations” and Mr. Nguyen Huy Bang, the MOET Chief Inspector presented “Regulations for Sanctioning Administrative Violations”. They spent the second day discussing issues related to dealing with violations. It was an opportunity for them to share experiences and plan for ways to develop and implement their ideas.

Mr. Nguyen Huy Bang addresses the conference

“The government must find new ways to manage and sanction administrative violations, as we still have problems in this field of education. The conference was a good opportunity for inspectors to share their experiences and new information”, said Mr. Nguyen Huu Bang.

Another conference on “Training Skills for Academic Inspectors” will be held at DTU from the 15th to the 16th of December.
