

The 2013 DTU Student Festival

The 2013 DTU Student Festival was held on December 1st. Thousands of DTU students were delighted to take part.

The gymnasium was alive with the effervescent sounds of the songs and humorous Flashmob dances of the DTU students, who all swung in time to the music.

One of the activities at the festival

DTU students acted and learned through the “Students and Traffic Safety” game. Thousands of students also joined the “Golden Heart Fund” program launched by the Labour Newspaper to send out messages of support to fishermen in the Paracel islands and Spratly islands to express the awareness, responsibility and affection of DTU students for Vietnamese compatriots and our nation.

Students send messages of support to fishermen in the Paracel and Spratly islands

This was a memorable and rewarding festival for students, which helped unite them. Student Phan Thi Thuan, of the K19YCD2 class, said: “Today is really happy and meaningful for me. At the festival, I have had the opportunity to take part in many fun activities and exchange ideas and information with new friends, all of which builds up my confidence and broadens my mind.” Student Nguyen Thi Ai Quyen, of the K19TCD class said: “The festival brings us closer together and helps us to become aware of how we can all work together. In addition, it makes us conscious of our responsibility to the community and society and why we should try to learn harder and harder.”

(Board of Website Editors)