

The ASEAN Student Conference: An Opportunity for Young People to Meet and Exchange Ideas

The 2016 ASEAN Student Conference enabled ASEAN students to meet, exchange ideas and explore the cultures, education systems and career opportunities in ASEAN nations, during these times of globalization.

The 2016 ASEAN Student Conference (Photo: VGP/Hong Hanh)

The conference is an integral part of the P2A framework, which aims to become an ASEAN-wide forum where students can meet, exchange experiences, study, and collaborate on research projects. 120 lecturers and students from each ASEAN country attended, together with lecturers and students from universities and colleges throughout Vietnam. During the three days of the conference participants attended plenary sessions of the 2016 ASEAN Student Conference, the ASEAN Student Fair and student-business meetings about the ASEAN common labor market.

DTU will also launch a booth exposition entitled “Linking Programs in Education and International Student Exchange”, to introduce the “International Training Program”, where invitees can learn about P2A activities at the university and the importance of bringing students from different countries together and offer them the opportunity of studying in other ASEAN countries.

(Media Center)