Mr. Nguyen Huu Phu said: “The 2013 Job Fair is a working event where local businesses and DTU students get together with students to bridge their education with career opportunities. Hopefully the 37 companies taking part will recruit some talented graduates and they will find suitable jobs on this occasion”.

An exchange “Companies and Students” was also held at the event. Company representatives shared their special experiences with students about job-hunting and the essential skills required to succeed in job interviews.

Trinh Thi Phuong of B17KDN2 said: “As a final year student, I am interested in career opportunities today. I have been provided with the necessary information to select a suitable position”.

As well as DTU students, the 2013 Job Fair attracted students from other universities in Danang. “Though I am a third-year student, I am eager to be here today. This is a very practical way for us to learn new skills and look for job opportunities to prepare myself for the recruiting process”, said Tran Tien of K16TPM.

At the Job Fair, DTU signed a collaboration agreement with Sunrise Hoi An Resort to provide highly-qualified Tourism and Hospitality staff. Mr. Markus Baur - CEO of Axon Active Vietnam presented certificates to 19 the DTU students who participated in the Scrum development training course and achieved the highest results.
