

Thousands Attend the 2017 Jobs Fair at DTU

On June 3rd Da Nang's Duy Tan University organized a jobs fair in conjunction with the Nguoi Lao Dong newspaper to introduce graduating students to large local companies.

Ninety-two large companies and government agencies from Danang and central Vietnam were there to recruit students for 3,152 jobs in various fields. Fifteen hundred new DTU graduates attended with another ten thousand from other local universities and colleges.

Students attend the 2017 Jobs fair at DTU

Dr. Nguyen Huu Phu, DTU Vice-Provost, stated that the annual Job Fair offers the opportunity for graduates to find careers conforming to their aspirations and abilities, allowing companies to recruit highly qualified employees. The DTU Jobs Fairs has attracted hundred companies from Danang and elsewhere. In total they have received 24,000 job applications for 16,512 positions over the past ten years.

(Media Center)