

Tourism Students Meet at DTU

On Jan 17th 2011, an exchange evening was held with tourism students from the National Economics University and Thai Nguyen University at the Quang Trung Campus. Many tourism lecturers and students the three universities attended.

The students had the opportunity to share experiences and representatives from each institution presented their curricula. On behalf of DTU, Mr. Nguyen Cong Minh, the Dean of Hospitality and Tourism, sincerely thanked the visitors for attending.

A Performance by DTU Students

The student show followed the lecturer presentations. Each university featured quite distinctive performances. A student from National Economics University declared "Standing on top of Ngu Hanh Son Mountain and gazing at the blue sea, I really enjoyed the spectacular view that I only knew about previously in books. Danang is so beautiful and the people so kind." At the end of the evening, students were sad to leave.

Associate Professor Nguyen Van Manh, Dean of Tourism Faculty at the National Economics University said. "Not only could the students share information tonight. The lecturers were also able to learn many new interesting facts. I especially want to thank DTU for holding such a meaningful event."

(Media Center)