

US Lecturers from Penn State University Teach at DTU

A group of lecturers from Penn State University in the USA, led by Dr. Curtis Exporter, PSU Rector, came to DTU from 20th June to 15th August, 2011, to train thirty DTU lecturers. The course is held under the collaborative agreement between DTU and PSU.

A PSU lecturer joins in team discussions

The DTU lecturers will be trained in such professional skills such as Negotiation, Advertising, Finance, Accounting, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics and Tourism. On graduation, they will be granted “PSU trained lecturer” certificates by Penn State University. Some of them will attend a refresher course at the PSU Campus in Pennsylvania in the summer of 2012. Mr. Ho Nguyen Khoa, Dean of the DTU Business Administration Department said: “Thanks to this course, I have gained more knowledge and experience in teaching methods. The PSU lecturers are very kind and enthusiastic, which will encourage us to be more creative in our work”.

PSU is one of three prestigious American universities that DTU has recently collaborated with. Some new majors, based on PSU standards will soon be offered at DTU, including Business Administration, Finance and Banking, Accounting and Marketing. Students can apply for enrollment in August 2011.

(Board of Website Editors)